ENGLISH PATHWAYS

Your guide to meeting Curtin's English competency requirement

Make tomorrow better.

ENGLISH PATHWAYS

If you don't meet the English requirements for your course at Curtin University, you can package your course with English courses offered by Navitas English and Curtin English. By doing so, you will streamline your enrolment and visa application process.

The English course you need to take will be determined by your English language test result. Some of the English Language test results we accept are IELTS, TOEFL, PTE-A and CAE.

If you don't have a recent English language test result, you will need to complete the Password Test.

PASSWORD TEST

Password is a free, online language test by Curtin English, to determine your starting level. Your score can only be used for entry into the Curtin English Gateway and General English courses, but not the English Language Bridging Course.

It includes a test of grammar and vocabulary, and an essay writing task. The knowledge test is multiple choice and takes one hour to complete. The essay writing task has a choice of two questions and takes 30 minutes.

PATHWAYS DIAGRAM

This diagram shows the English pathways you can take, starting at your existing IELTS score* (one of the grey boxes) and finishing at the IELTS score you need (6.0, 6.5 or 7.0, depending on your chosen course).

Example: If you have an IELTS score of 5.0, and you need an IELTS score of 6.5, you will need to successfully complete the Curtin English Pathway (12 weeks), followed by the English Language Bridging course (17 weeks).

 Non-IELTS scores will be converted to an IELTS score.*
